3. Show personnel have the right to excuse any person or horse that is endangering spectators or show exhibitors.
4. JUDGES' DECISION IS FINAL!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
5. All headgear must be in good operating condition and must be ASTM approved for equine activities.
6. Exhibitors must sign a waiver at time of entry.
7. Anyone on national suspension may not transport horses to this show and may only participate as a spectator.
8. Ribbons for 1st through 6th for each class.
9. High-Points are 6-5-4-3-2-1 for same horse/rider combination.
10. A 2-minute gate call and a 4-minute tack change will be enforced.
11. You must be entered in the class prior to the gate call for that class.
12. NO alcoholic beverages or drugs allowed on premises.
13. You do not have to be a member of BRHF to enter a class
14. NO smoking permitted inside the buildings.
15. *Blue Ridge Horse Force sanctioned classes.
16. No electronic communication devices may be used by a rider in a class.
17. Stallions are allowed with stipulations. SHOW MANAGEMENT MUST BE MADE AWARE OF ANY STALLIONS ATTENDING THIS SHOW PRIOR TO ARRIVAL. No youth may show or handle a stallion while on the grounds. Any stallion that shows ill behavior or dangerous behavior will be asked to vacate the premises immediately. There are no exceptions.
18. May Show – The Powder Memorial Pony Pleasure class is open only to riders 17 & under. This is a perpetual trophy that must be returned the following year. (It must be won 3 years in a row by the same rider/pony combo before it will be retired.) The class is judged on the most suitable pony to its rider. This pony will display characteristics that show its devotion to its rider through its manners and responsiveness to cues.
19. The perpetual/challenge trophies must be returned to the following year unless it is the third consecutive year that the rider/horse have won them. In that case the award will be retired to the winning horse/rider combination.
20. New London Horse Show, Bedford Co. 4-H, RJ Pleasure Horses LLC., show sponsors, employees, volunteers and other staff members shall in no way, jointly or individually be liable or responsible for a loss, accident, damage or loss of life that may occur to any exhibitor, owner, trainer, groom, stable, horse, corporation, partnership, individual or spectator, sustained while at the show and shall hold the show harmless and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising from such loss and/or accidents. Entry into property will constitute acceptance of this policy.
21. Battle of the Barns Show is unique to the August date. In addition to individuals competing as part of the series a rider may also ride as a team for special awards unique to this particular show. A team consists of 5 riders of any age and horses. Each team earns points as a team and team awards are given at the end of the day based on point standings. A horse may be shared by 2 riders and count for points if the 2 riders do not ride in the same division. When a horse is shared by 2 riders, it must be designated on the entry form who the riders are on the shared horse and what division they are competing in. Teams must be declared 5 days prior to the show (forms will be available online.) This show is also a fund raiser for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. In addition to class entry fees paid to New London Horse Show, each team is asked for a minimum donation of $30 designated to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Checks for St. Jude will be collected at the show office or can be mailed with team registration. Full Battle of the Barn rules are posted on the website (www.newlondonhorshow.com)
22. Pre-registration is encouraged. Registration forms can be submitted to NewLondonHorseShow@gmail.com. All pre-registration forms are due by the Sunday prior to the show date. Registration will also be done on the day of the show. Payment is due the day of the show. Please have a copy of your Coggins to leave with the show office. There will be a $40 fee for any checks returned by our bank.
23. RANCH BOXING CLASS: will consist of a single cow worked (boxing) on the end of the arena. The time limit for the class is sixty (60) seconds.
 - a) This class is designed to demonstrate and measure a horse's ability to do cow work. Holding the saddle horn is permitted in this class.

- b) A Superior Ranch Boxing Horse should be in complete control at all times. Showing natural cow sense along with softness of face and body with rider's cues. Horse should stop using haunches. Turns should be quick and snappy.
- c) This class will be judged on run, rate, control, degree of difficulty and eye appeal. 1. There will be no schooling between cows if a new cow is awarded. 2. The rider will face the cow end of the arena and call for a cow. Each exhibitor upon receiving a cow, shall hold that cow on the prescribed end of the arena for one (1) minute, demonstrating the ability of the horse and rider to control the cow. Time shall begin when the gate closes behind the cow after being let into the arena. Timing will be done by the announcer or judge starting when the cow is turned into the arena. At one (1) minute, the announcer will call time. The judge may blow a whistle at any time for the contestant to cease work for safety reasons.

24. RANCH ROPING RULES

- A) The intent of this class is to show the ability of the horse and rider skill of handling cattle as if they were doctoring injured or sick cattle. Cattle should be handled as calmly and slowly as possible. The judge should judge this class as if the cattle belonged to him or her. Entry does not have to separate their cow from herd and should not receive credit for separation from herd. When cow is separated from the herd there should be no excessive running or cutting of the cow.
- B) This is a judged event with a 90 second time limit. The rope must be thrown, and the contestant may throw only two loops. Any attempt by exhibitor to trap, snare, or collar cow by holding onto the loop will be cause for disqualification. A second rope may be used, but the total number of loops thrown may not exceed two (2). If a second loop is used it must be recoiled. The Honda on the rope used must be of a factory plastic breakaway design. R
